RED RICE'S

RED RICE'S.—WEDNESDAY, FEB. 24.

You who have visited our stores since the inauguration of our great reduction sale are no doubt astonished that we sell so cheap. Two or three parties on yesterday were quite indignant when told that certain goods offered were new, insisting that they knew better—we could not sell new furniture 80 cheap. All the same, the goods are new and of the very best and most coally make, yet we must have money; hence these bargains. We are actually selling some of our Bedroon Sets for $8.00 less than cost to us. If there is anything you want to see you. You can pick out your own goods. Everything is marked in plain figures now at RED RICE'S BAZAR, 143 and 145 South Main street, Los Angeles.

The Proceedings Almost Terminate in a Free Fight.

The Third Party Scheme the Real 214 AND 216 W. SECOND ST. Bone of Contention.

Sy. Louis, Feb. 23.—[By the Associated Press.] Seldom, if ever, has a more turbulent scene been witnessed at a great political gathering than the one presented late this afternoon in the big national industrial conference. For several anxious minutes the convention seemed about to break to pieces in a fight. The Committee on Credentials caused all this trouble by seating the contesting, or third party, delegates from Georgia. As soon as their names were read pandemonium broke loose. Moses of Georgia, an anti-third party man, made yigorous objection unless the contestants would submit to the unit rule.

In an instant Post, one of the contesting men, was up. He was here, he said, as a delegate chosen by the State Alliance, while Moses was chosen by the Executive Committee. Nineteentwentieths of the State Alliance of Georgia was in favor of independent political action, and a small faction was represented by the other wing, not deserving of consideration. "Congressman Livingston," declared Post, "had himself declared in favor of selecting delegates all of one opinion or lecting delegates all of one opinion or the other, and then choosing a set of men whose purpose it was, as it was Livingston's own, to deliver the Alli-ance, bound hand and foot, to the old ance, bound hand and foot, to the old Democratic ring."

Branch of Georgia also yelled at the top of his voice in the same vein. The uproar increased. Delegates were shaking fists in one another's faces and the chairman's gavel had no effect.

Chairman Brown, of the Credentials Committee, said the committee had recognized the great seal of the Alliance of Georgia and found three men entitled to seats. This left two vacancies, and in the interest of harmony these had been filled by a selection from the opposing force. It was not a question of the old political parties, but a question of peace.

The confusion contined for fully five minutes. Finally Ellington of Georgia mounted a chair and

The confusion contined for fully five minutes. Finally Ellington of Georgia mounted a chair and repeated Post's charges against the Georgia Executive Committee. Moses tried to get at him and a free fight seemed unavoidable, but the convention, seeming suddenly to realize the disgrace of the affair, took an astonishing right about face. The report of the Committee on Credentials was adopted with a long wail from Georgia.

It was resolved that during recess the Committee on Platform be appointed on a compromise basis. The plan was to give each national organization three representatives on the convention and it was carried unanimously.

In an instant Powderly of the Knights of Labor was on his feet hotly protesting that the proceedings were irregular. Others added their protests and an Illinois delegate made a motion for reconsidering the election of Polk.

The motion was promptly carried and it was decided that the vote be by States instead of by organizations and Polk was unanimously elected.

Polk then announced that the next order of business was the election of vice-presidents and other officers. Miss Frances Willard and Ben Terrill of Texas were elected vice-presidents; John W. Hay, of the Knights of Labor, was made secretary; and Warwick, colored delegate from Virginia, assistant secretary.

While a motion by Simpson of Kansas to adjourn for two hours was pending Dr. McCune read a telegram from Messrs. Whittaker and Davis urging the conference to adopt a resolution asking Congress to pass the anti-option bill. McCune made a motion that a special committee be appointed, but finally a recess of thirty minutes was secured, with the understanding that the committee be appointed.

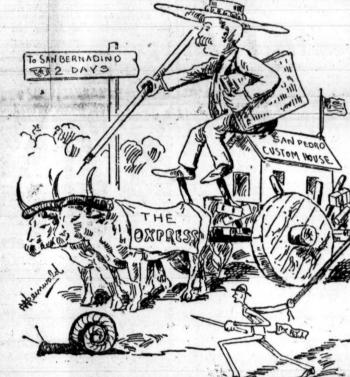

The third party fight was brought on in earnest by a report of the Committee on Credeniels after recess, seating Post and Branch, two third-party delegates, whom it had been sought to shut out. In a general scramble for the floor Post got in first, and in a bitter speech denounced Congressman Living-ston of Georgia as attempting to hand over the Alliance in that State, bound hand and foot, to the Democratic party. The excitement caused by this accusation was intense, but after a scene of extraordinary confusion the report of the Credentials Committee was adopted by a large majority. This was a substantial triumph for the third partyites. The row among the Georgians contin-ued flercely and was only ended by the sergeant-at-arms forcibly seating the warring Southerners.

When quiet was measurably restored the long list of members of the Platform Committee was finally completed and read, making a total of nearly 150 and read, making a total of nearly 150 members. The announcement of Post as committeeman from Georgia started another row in the Georgia delegation, whereupon Jerry Simpson suggested that half the Georgia delegates be appointed to Alaska to give them a chance to cool off.

Soon after Willetts, national lecturer of the Farmers' Alliance, moved that the convention demand the passage of the sub-treasury bill as a means of relief for the people, instead of petitioning Congress to enact the proposed anti-option law.

chairman after Weaver had declined.

Ignatius Donnelly said to a reporter tonight: "It has been practically decided to incorporate the sub-treasury scheme, free coinage of silver, woman suffrage and prohibition. The latter point will cause a discussion, but I believe that in a more modified form it will be a part of the platform."

At an informal conference of promi-At an informal conference of promi-

This, Miss Willard explained, does not in the least interfere with the efforts being put forth by herself and other Prohibition-ists, as individuals, to secure such decla-rations from the industrial conference as may serve as a basis of future united political action among labor and tem-perance reformers. A most serious split in the industrial conference is threatened by the action of a large number of Southern delegates. At a caucus held last night it became bureau.

Simpson and Livingston seconded his motion, Livingston setzing the opportunity to deny the accusation made by Post. He invoked harmony. After some discussion the convention adopted the census resolution by an emphatic vote.

The free coinage trouble was now pitched among the delegates by Wilson of Georgia, offering a resolution that the convention petition Congress for the adoption of the pending bill for free and unlimited coinage of silver.

Livingston tried to have it carried, but his time was hampered rather than helped by a Kansas man.

Tracy of Oregon, apparently at the instance of a Kansas man near by, tacked on an amendment demanding the evident that many Southerners are not

NEW YORK POLITICS. Tammany Men Alarmed at the Strength of the Antis.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—[By the Associated Press.] Nearly all members of the anti-snap convention committee returned from Albany last night. The leaders are confident that the proposed State convention at Syracuse on May 31 will be recognized as the real Democratic convention and its delegates will be admitted to the national convention. An evening paper says:

In private conversation Tammany men express doubt that Hill will be nominated at Chicago, and they no longer deride the anti-snap convention movement. The general sentiment of Tammany seems to be embodied in this sentence: "We are willing to win with Hill, but not prepared to go down with him." The World says:

Senator Hill secured the delegation four months in advance of the national convention. What has he got? What will he do with it? Or what will it do of and for it self? A great many things are Hable to happen, and are quite certain to happen, during the next four months, which will materially influence and probably determine the choice of the Democratic candidate for President. The Times says:

The Times says:

At most or worst Hill's convention can only serve as a hindrance to the nomination of Cleveland. That it will serve as an effective hindrance we do not believe, and the revelation of Democratic sentiment in all parts of the country diminish every day doubt on this point. The Democratic convention at Chicago will not nominate Hill. It may go West for its candidate or South or to the Pacific Coast. If it comes East. or to New York it will come for a man better known and more respected than Hill.

Unless all signs fail, the anti-Hill move oness all signs fail, the anti-fill move-ment is rapidly gaining strength and has already become serious enough to be called a faction. If they only have the necessary courage and wisdom, the anti-fillites can atone for the past by making the most of their present opportunities. If they force, the fighting they can speedily destroy Hill as a Presidential possibility.

The Herald this morning, commenting on the Albany convention, says:
Yesterday's convention emphasized the fact that New York State is very badly split. Hill has the machine, without a split. Hill has the machine, without a doubt, but a very large number of Democrats are yet to be convinced that he has the people. The party in the State has a very bitter feud on its hands and the agressive policy of Hill has excited oppositions which renders the vote of November uncertain for himself or Cleveland. A Western man, who is also a Southern man, like Watterson for instance, with Hill for second place, would be sure to carry New York and the country. The Democrats, now divided into factions and losing no opportunity to knife each other, would unite on such a ticket and carry the banner to undoubted victory. loubted victory.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 23.—Henry Watterson in an editorial on Hill says:
Now that Hill has been made the choice of the New York Democrats, Cleveland is no longer a possibility. His selection as the Democratic standard-bearer, if such a thing under the circumstances is conceivable, would be on the part of the national Democracy an act of delibeerat suicide. He could not be elected.

After declaring that he could not vote for the nomination of Hill, Watteron offers as a substitute John Griffin Carlisle of Kentucky, next in succession to Grover Cleveland, to wear his mantle.

Lively Session of Democrats.
San Francisco, Feb. 28.—The State convention of Democratic clubs had a lively session here today. After a tem-porary organization had been effected and Chairman Glasscock of Oakland had announced the various committees, it was found that Los Angeles and San Diego counties had not been given places on the Committee on Resolutions. Delegates from those counties made a vigorous protest, and after a long struggle the matter was compromised by the adoption of a motion to increase the number of each motion to increase the number of each committee from fourteen to twenty without designating the section from which they were to be chosen. John R. Glassock was elected permanent chairman. R. P. Troy of San Rafael was elected secretary. John H. Wise of San Francisco was chosen treasurer.

An Extraordinary Suicide at St. Louis.

A Case Quite Like the Mitchell-Ward Tragedy in Memphis.

The Victim a Young Physician With a Remarkable Mania.

A Rambling Letter Tells the Story of the Man's Strange Infatuation Which Drove Him to Seek Death.

By Telegraph to The Times.

St. Louis, Feb. 23.—[By the Associated Press.] That the peculiarities of the Alice Mitchell-Freda Ward case at Memphis are not confined to the feminine sex was demonstrated by the sui-cide here this morning of Dr. E. T. Breedloye of Baltimore. This morning the inmates of Hurst's Hotel were startled by a pistol shot. A few seconds later Isaac M. Judson rushed downstairs and informed the proprietor that Dr. Breedlove had just shot himself. Hurst at once rushed to the room, where he found Breedlove's dead body. The man had shot himself in the right temple and death was evidently instan-

At the police station Judson said that he was in the room when Breedlove shot himself and gave the cause of the act as despondency and a strange at-tachment for himself (Judson.) This latter remark lost significance when taken in connection with a letter found among the dead man's effects. It says, in part:

taken in connection with a letter found among the dead man's effects. It says, in part:

I came intending first to kill you and then myself. I shall only make an end of my own miserable existence, and my love for you has been my ruin. I can no more live apart from you than fly. There is but one thing I could have, and that is to pass the remainder of my life in your presence. I shall do that, anyhow, for to die in your arms relieves death of half its terrors. It is cruel for me to do this act, for it will blight your life, I should be more cruel to myself to try to live without you.

You have done all but one right and effective thing to save and make me, but it has failed. I would gladly beg, steal, do anything, forego riches, forget friends, home, kindred for a life of blissful association with you. The blow will probably kill my mother. I shudder to think of it. We might have been happy together had it not been for your rich friends, your high ideas of morality, which you never fill; but it is too late and must come. Good-bye, Isaac. I won't wish you happiness; you will never have that again, and you will follow in my footsteps some time. Men of our motives and sins must have their punishment and, ours comes in a terrible shape. You are mine in the sight of Heaven and no family ties can claim you from me and death. I have loved you better than you ever have or will be loved again. Pray for my soul. Amen. Scraps of other letters of the same tenor were found in the room. Judson says he has been an intimate friend of the suicide for some time past. Breedlove had been depressed for some time over financial matters, and his failure to establish himself in his profession. Judson went this morning to the hotel to see Breedlove, who was about to leave on a visit to Baltimore. As he entered

The Mitchell-Ward Case. Dubose, in this morning's session of the court, overruled the motion made by the defense in the Mitchell murder case to have the State produce the letters now in its possession, said to have been written by Miss Mitchell. Proceedings in the habeas corpus case of Miss Lillie Johnson, now under arrest, charged with being an accessory to the murder of Miss Ward, were begun.

Young Field in Court.

New York, Feb. 23.—Edward M. Field, the head of the firm of Field, Weichers, Lindley & Co., was brought before the Court of Oyer and Terminer today for trial on one of the six indict-ments, charging him with grand larceny. Counsel for Field objected to his being placed on trial, stating that he is insane and mentally incapable of pleading to an indictment. The district at-torner suggested that a jury be selected to settle the question of Field's sanity, and the work of the selection of one at once began.

She Tried to Embrace Cleveland.
DETROIT, Feb. 23. — Ex-President Cleveland arrived back from Toledo this afternoon. This evening a public re-ception was held at Hotel Cadillac. The ception was held at Hotel Cadillac. The general public was admitted and Cleveland cordially shook the hands of all. The line was broken for a few minutes when Gen. Alger was introduced, and he and the ex-President exchanged courtesies amid a scene of great enthusiasm. An amusing incident was a vain endeavor of an elderly female to embrace Mr. Cleveland.

Corner Spring and Temple Streets.

The danger of war with Chile is pa Fast Whittier lands are selling fast cure your ten ere it is too late, Or by and by you'll bemoan your fate.

UT, wiping the tears from your eyes when your chances are all gone, will do no good, and the wise man who bought in time will have little sympathy for you then. So avoid such a contingency, come to East Whittier; buy while good chances are to be had. A great many acres will be set out in trees on the tract this season, and improvements are going merrily on. We are offering the lands very cheap now on the start; they will be higher soon. Such lands at Redlands or Riverside are bringing $400 to $600 per acre, simply because they have a start, though it is pretty hot there in the summer time. But at East Whittier you can got the sea breeze every day; no need to go to the beach to keep cool, but if you want to take a dip you can drive over to Long Beach in less than two hours. There are few such locations in Southern California.

So come along quick and you can take your pick in the choicest lot of land in all the country side Dr. Jessup with his gig, or Reed with his horse Nig, Will show you the tract and give you a free ride.

You can come to Sante Fe Springs at 8:30 on the Santa Fe, and get back to Los Angeles at 1:20. Drop a line to Dr. JESSUP, at Whittier, a day or two ahead and he will meet you sat the train. Write him for full particulars, or to given:

That of the City Clerk was read and acted upon as follows:

CITY CLERE'S REPORT In the matter of improving Third street (formerly Georgia street,) the proceedings were commenced March 1, 1891, nearly a fiume and pipe on Alameda street in zanja No. 2.

In the matter of the proposition of M. J. Newmark and others, offering to dedicate for public use the alley to be known as Ferguson alley and extending from Los Angedes street to Alameda street, I would advise that the offer be accepted. [Adopted.] In regard to the demand of the Southern California Coal and Clay Company for $453.34 for balance due on pipe furnished for the western intercepting sewer. I find that the city entered into a contract in 1890 with John Dolbeer to furnish this pipe; also, I find that a demand was put in by the coal company for the amount due upon the pipe which was to be furnished by Dolbeer. I find that on a former demand of the company the City Engineer reported that he had received the amount of pipe stated in this account and the company was then paid 75 per cent. The claim now presented is the remaining 25 per cent. (formerly Georgia street.) the proceedings were commenced March 1, 1891, nearly a year ago, but nothing has been done since, and I recommend that said proceedings be abandoned. [Adopted.]

In the matter of the sidewalking of First street, between Alameda and Center streets, proceedings were commenced April 14, 1891, since which time nothing has been done, and I recommend that these proceedings be abandoned. [Adopted.]

In the matter of the sidewalking of Twenty-second street, between Grand avenue and Figueroa street, the Council acquired jurisdiction in this matter on the 14th day of February. The only protest received was that of Martin Dunn, and this was denied, except as to that portion included in the proposed opening of Flower street. I herewith present a final ordinance to proceed with the work. [Adopted.]

In the matter of the sewer upon Victor street the Council acquired jurisdiction on the 29th of December, 1891. The only protests filed were those of M. Kremer and P. Beaudry, which the Council heard and overruled. I present herewith a final or dinance ordering the work proceeded with [Adopted.]

In the matter of paying Pearl street, be-

In the matter of paving Pearl street, between Pico and Sixth streets, the Council acquired jurisdiction on the 16th of February, 1892. No protests have been filed.
I present herewith a final ordinance ordering the work proceeded with. [Adopted.]

In the matter of grading, sidewalking and sewering Thirtieth street, between Main street and Grand avenue, the Council acquired jurisdiction on the 16th of February, 1892. No protests have been received. I present herewith a final ordinance ordering the work proceeded with. [Referred to the Board of Public Works.]

In the matter of paving Figueroa street, between Washington and Thirty-seventh streets, Council acquired jurisdiction on the 20th of February, 1892. No protests have been received. I herewith present final ordinance ordering the work proceeded with.

FAVING OF FIGUEROA STREET.

PAVING OF FIGUEROA STREET. Charles Silent, Esq., addressed the Council on behalf of the property owners on Figueroa street at some length upon this subject. He stated that when the proceedings to pave this street were commenced a horse railroad occupied eighteen feet in the center of the roadway. The proceedings were started in the usual way, but since their commencement the railroad company had petitioned the Council for leave had petitioned the Council for leave to abandon its franchise. Now the property owners were entirely satisfied that the company should do so, but they desired the proceedings to be regular, so that the railroad company could not, if it desired to do so, return and claim its right to run over the street after the work of paving it had been com-pleted. The property owners also pleted. The property owners also wanted to know whether or not the street could not be beautified. It had been suggested, and the idea was generally approved of, that Adams and Figueroa streets, being ninety feet wide, could be improved by the laying out of square flower beds in the center, leaving a roadway on either side. In the case of Figueroa street the space taken up by the railroad tracks would be ample for this purpose and there would be plenty of room on either side for the ordinary amount of travel.

Councilman Tufts, at the conclusion of Mr. Silent's address, at once moved that proceedings be abandoned as requested. The request had been made that the people wanted the street paved and improved.

Councilman Rees said he had no objection to allowing the matter to remain in statu quo for a while, but judging from the big effort made to defeat the matter when it first came up it might be that the petitioners would not be able to get the majority they felt so confident of getting.

Councilman Tufts thought the gentleman was mistaken in referring to an ef-fort to defeat this matter, but Council-man Rees retorted that there was an effort and he knew of it. Councilman Tufts argued that if action on this matter was put off from week to week the paving would be also deferred so much the longer. Councilman Nickell thought there might be a question as to the validity of the bonds, but in his opinion there could be none as to the good faith of the railroad company to its abandon ment of its franchise.

Mr. Silent said that he desired to call Councilman Rees's attention to the fact that the people could not proceed under the existing proceedings for two reasons: the first was that they were invalid and the second that the people had changed their plans relative to the beautifying of the streets. It must be well understood by every member of the Council that the people residing in that part of the city had done all they could to improve it.

Councilman McGarry said that he saw no reason why the granting of this request should be withheld from the peoole. It was a nice innovation and should e approved of by all.

After some further debate Councilman Rees moved that the matter be re-ferred to the Board of Public Works for a week, adding that a week would not make any difference one way or the other. Councilman McGarry moved to amend by deferring action on the matter until the afternoon session. Councilman Rhodes, however, wanted to know who was going to bear the ex-penses already incurred, in the event of the abandonment of the present pro-

Mr. Silent announced that he would

Mr. Silent announced that he would foot the bills if necessary, but President Bonsall remarked that in cases of this sort the city would have to pay the expenses.

Councilman Nickell said that there was no use in antagonizing these people on Figueroa street, and as far as he was concerned he admired their enterprise. They were eager to go ahead and the proper thing for the Council to do was to abandon the proceedings as requested.

After some further talk on the subject the motion to refer was put and defeated by a vote of 5 to 4, Messra.

The report of the City Attorney was to the effect that he is of the opinion that the claims for the return of taxes paid under the "horizontal raise" made by the Board of Equalization are not legal claims against the city.

G. Wiley Wells, Esq., as attorney for the claimants, then addressed the Council at length, arguing that as a matter of equity the money should be returned, as it had been collected illegally and is merely held by the city as a trust as moneys had and received. THE San Francisco Examiner has made a bold stroke for decency and humanity by giving a detailed report of a dog fight, which occurred the other day in a pit in the rear of a low groggery on the water front. The paper gives not only a detailed description of the brutalizing spectacle, but it publishes pictures taken on the spot, a cut of the groggery where the fight occurred and prints the names of the participants and spectators in black-faced type, giving their occupations and addresses, so that they can be found. It scores the police force for allowing such beastly exhibitions, and calls strongly for their suppression by the strong arm of the law. The Examiner says editorially:

The sort of creatures who frequent the dogpit are worse than barbarians—they are the savages of civilization, men who are the savages of civilization, men who remain brutes in spite of every influence around them that is hostile to brutishness. If these beasts would choose themselves to fight instead of setting their fanged and four-footed betters at it for money there would be no special reason in morals for interfering. The two-legged beast knows what he is doing when he goes into battle, and he is at liberty to stop when he has had enough. That is the essential difference between pugilism and the revolting "sport" of dog and cockpit. The dog-fighter's head is designed by nature for the policeman's club. Nothing milder can keep him alive to the fact that there are laws which must not be broken.

HIS ESTEEMED HIGHNESS, the Nizam of Hyderabad, India, has fared badly in a trade with a man of the name of Jacobe and has failed to obtain redress in the courts. It seems that His Highness purchased, "sight, unseen," from Jacobs a diamond, for which he agreed to pay 46 lakhs of rupees, amounting to about $1,000,000. Half of this he paid in advance on the representation that the forthcoming diamond should resemble in gorgeousness the setting sun. When the brilliant was produced it was not larger than a goose-egg, and in fact, could not much more than hold a candle to the sun. The Nizam was indignant, and brought suit to recover his 28 lakhs of rupees. But the court, having no fear of Indian royalty before eyes, decided in the dealer and the trade holds. An unsympathetic American paper, which is not afraid of losing any subscribers in ia, observes that a man who would agree to pay $1,000,000 for one diamond when he could buy a quart for 75 cents in Alaska is a startling illustion of the fact that he does not read the newspapers. A Cold Blast from Minnesota

Minneapolis is one of the overboomed cities of the great West now in a state of partial collapse, which can not forgive California for drawing away from her many of her citizens who made their pile during the boom and were fortunate enough not to plant it again in Minnesota soil. The Tribune of Minne apolis, from whose columns we have before quoted, is one of the most gangrened of all the papers of the West when it comes to discussing California. It published a few days ago a letter from a returned pilgrim of the name of A. B. Gould, who has a new lot of vapid untruths to utter about this State. These flagrant misrepresentations the Tribune rolls like a sweet morsel under its editorial tongue. Describing the experience of the man Gould, it says: He found it dimcult to get outside of city in that "poor man's country," bu finally discovered that in the suburbs, only initially discovered that in the suburbs, only fifteen miles from the depot, he could buy an outlying lot for $200, which cost only $100 for water and $150 to set to orange trees which would bear fruit in eight years. It was a paradise, free from windstorms, barring a stray zephyr that might steal down from Cajan Pass, tumble the brick blocks and churches, sift sand through fireproof safes and wipe out a hundred miles or so of orange crop. The population was good, the sidewalks being occupied by a large and cultured constituency from the East—out of a job. Our returned pligrim's parting advice for the benefit of his Minnesota. brethren runs thus: "Mr. Editor, this is the garden spot of the world, phigrim's parting advice for the benefit of his Minnesota, brethren runs thus: "Mr. Editor, this is the garden spot of the world this is the favored region of creation, right this is the favored region of creation, right here. Townsite boomers will still excite Eastern suckers, discontented farmers will still sell out to suffer disappointment in California, but when the star of empire gets ready to settle down, she will pitch her camp right here in this golden Northwest. It is the best country on earth."

"The experience of Mr. Gould deserves attention because it is of the same plece with that of heartsick thousands who have returned from much-boomed States and Territories West and South. The ebb tide brings back from these lands of "golden gates," "virgin loams" and "commercial emporiums," not only the disappointed agricultural pligrim, but, in carload lots, the sick and sold army of labor, and even the omnipresent and omniscient "metropolis-maker."

Of course the Tribune winds up by advising every Minnesotan to stick to his own blessed country, and never, never stray away, for fear that he might fare as Gould and the other pilgrims have done.

Such utterly absurd and jaundiced diatribes are hardly worth noticing. They probably serve no worse purpose than to stimulate inquiry as to the real characteristics of California. Nobody of well-balanced mind would take such manifest misrepresentation as a candid, authoritative statement. Death loves a shining mark and so does envy. Whenever a country or an individual is denounced beyond all measure of fairness, it is pretty evident that that mar and that country have some mighty good qualities. California is not suf fering for the presence of those intensely patriotic Minnesotans who go so far out of the way to denounce a country that they have little knowledge of. By all means let them stay where the thermometer goes 80° and 40° below zero on occasion-where the blizzard howle and the tornado rages-where the best of their agricultural lands produce crops worth only from $12 to $20 at acre-where all the conditions of life are as hard as their frozen soil a good half of the year. Men will succeed and fail in all countries, and it is possible that now and then a refugee from the bleak plains of Minnesota does not flourish when he locates in California. He may even fall among sharpers and be egregiously swindled. But that does not waive the fact that every condition of life is pleasanter in California than it is in Minnesota. In this month of February, which is so intolerably cold and tempestuous in the Northwest, we have bright sunshine, green fields, growing crops, ripened oranges and more prosperity and happiness to the square rod than could be found on a square mile of Minnesota territory. As people increase in wealth, and their knowledge of the country grows, they will gradually drift away from those cold and inhospitable sections and seel the lands of more sunshine and greater comforts. Westward the star of empire takes its course in spite of what people at the halfway stations may say, and the Pacific Coast is its ultimate destination in America. The Minnesota people who are doing their utmost to misrepresent and decry this land, with the manifest purpose of preventing emigration hitherward, are simply kicking against the inevitable. There may have been a time when the people of rock-bound and storm-swept Maine, Vermont and New Hampshire thought that they had the best country on the face of the globe, and some of them may think so yet; but all the abuse that they could have heaped upon other parts of the United States would not have stayed the tide of Western immigration. It is said that the Laplander and the Esquimau are intensely attached to their own ice fields and undoubtedly think them the best part of the world. They would be heart-broken if banished from their six months of night and ten months of ice and snow, Nevertheless, people who are better in formed do not agree with them. Between the Esquimau and the Minneso-tan there is probably a strong affinity their opinions are both founded on the densest ignorance concerning the rest of the world. We of California have all of the natural advantages on our side. Fate is with us in controlling the destinies of the race, and we can afford to await the result. That result the bigotry of ignorance and the malevolence of spite can not turn aside or check.

The famou author read from his novel, "Dr. Sevier," and interpreted some of the characters of that delightful literary creation with rare that delightful literary creation with rare felicity. His "Narcisse," the impecunious Creole, was especially happy; but quite best of all was his word-painting of a landscape—the long, tree-arched avenue, the riotous roses, the humming birds among the honeysuckles, the pigeons on the roofs; the airy butterfiles fluttering in amorous dailiance on the perfumed air and the bananas "fanning themselves with their own broad leaves"—it was something daintily exquisite and delightful. Then the war pictures—the drums in the streets, the marching juveniles with laths and broomsticks, the glittering swords and bayonets and the flamboyant colors of the guidily-uniformed regiments—all were pictured so deftly and strikingly that the listener saw the very pageant on the stage where reader.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

POMONA (Cal.,) Feb. 21.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] In your correspondence of THE TIMES of February 20 appears the fol-lowing: "Some of the friends of Council-man Rolph are much vexed because he, too, has been dragged into the fight. He is chairman of the City Council and some of that right of the Cryston and some of this friends stated yesterday that if the opposite side dared prosecute the case they had enough evidence to cause both the high-license members to resign without taking it into court." Again, on February 21, the correspondence in The Timss reads as follows: "In regard to the matter of Councilman Rolph the two Councilmen who are for high-license took offense at the report that Rolph's friends said if they dared prosecute the matter they had enough evidence to cause both the high license men to resign. The Times representative gave the to cause both the high license men to re-sign. To be charged with committing an offense for which we would not have other alternative or cause of action than to resign forthwith mean probling less these grains and the second statements. for which we would not have other alternative or cause of action than to resign forthwith means nothing less than a criminal offense of a heinous nature. It means a good deal to parties innocent of the false charge, and it means something more. It means that if the parties so charging do not come forth with a truthful statement they commit a crime by condoning the orfense, provided there be an actual offense committed. If their statements be untrue, then they are libelers. We do not complain of TRE TIMES correspondent at all. It is "Rolph's friends" who gave utterance to the allegations we refer to. Nor is the statement that we are guilty of what Rolph is charged with a particle truer than the first charge. We have nothing to do with the Rolph case, know nothing about it, and care nothing. We are discharging our duties as Councilmen in the best interests of the city of Pomona and, should we ever encounter the tempitation to do what would afford cause for "bouncing" us in disgrace for committing, we will so deport ourselves as to cause no stain upon our characters or stigma upon our party to abide for one mostigma upon our party to abide for one moment. A great many people in Los Angeles had their first experience with an earthquake last night, and not a few of them were thoroughly alarmed by the phenomenon. It was at 11:14 when the first shock was felt in THE TIMES editorial room, and this was followed immediately by another, the two together lasting about fifteen seconds. The floor was seen to heave, the walls vibriated visibly and the entire building seemed to sway back and forth eastward and westward. Men looked at each other with more or less fear, exclaimed "earthquake" and then ininstinctively fled downstairs and out of doors, standing little upon the order of their going.

Even after reaching the safest available place in the middle of the street they could scarcely regain their equi-librium, the surface of the earth seem-ing to heave like the roll of the sea.

ing to heave like the roll of the sea. With the cessation of the trembling they all returned to the work, finding that all the clocks in the building had stopped at exactly 11:14.

The telephone in the editorial room kept up a constant ringing for an hour after, anxious citizens seeking to know particulars of the extent of the quake. In all sections of the city it had been particulars of the extent of the quake. In all sections of the city it had been felt, more of felt, more of course by people living in high buildings, but so heavy was the trembling that it effected pedestrians on the streets. Guests in the Nadeau Hotel rushed to the streets, carrying their clothing in their arms, and ten-ants of the Wilson Block and other tall buildings lost no time in reaching the ground, all appearing to expect some dire disaster and most of them feeling

At the office of the Electric Lighting Company a chandelier swayed fully three feet out of plumb, and at many other places a similar manifestation of the force of the shake was noted. At the Courthouse the chandeliers rattled, and though the big. building moved in a threatening manner nothing fell. The force of the trembling can be ap-preciated from the fact that it awakened many people who were sound asleep, a few even deciaring that they were nearly shaken out of their beds, and this, taken in conjunction with the fact that persons walking on the side-walks were made to feel dizzy and 'groggy' by the recurring shocks, in-cates the earthquake to have been the most severe one felt in this section for

RAILWAY RUMORS.

The Vanderbilt Interests Said to Have Effected an Important Deal.

New York, Feb. 28.—[By the Associated Press.] Rumor has it that Com-modore Vanderbilt's dream has been realized. It is said that the Vanderbilt interests have secured the control of the St. Paul system and that the gran alliance now includes the St. Paul, the Northwestern and Union Pacific-that is, a through line from New York to the Pacific at Portland and San Francisco. If true, it is the most important railroad deal of many years. It is said it will be formally announced on Wednesday, but Chauncey M. Depew denies it. He says that Commodore Vanderbilt never had any such dream. The Vanderbilt never had any such dream. derbilt interests have made no such at tempt to control in any way, shape or manner the St. Paul system.

"There is no truth in the story and you will find that such a combination exists only on the floor of the Stock Ex-change," said Mr. Depew. The story given out today with others of similar import circulated of late years had much to commend it and was told with great circumstantiality. Ac-tive efforts, it was asserted, had been going on since J. Pierpont Morgan succeeded in converting the $20,000, 000 floating debt of the Union Pacific road into interest-bearing certificates. After that Drexel, Morgan & Co. had succeeded in the furtherance of the deal now alleged to have been consummated in bringing into intimate relations with in bringing into intimate relations with the Vanderbilts and their friends outside parties who have heretofore con-trolled the St. Paul.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—[By the Associated Press.] A special cablegram from San Salvador, addressed to the Associated Press under date of February 28, states that Gen. Enriquez was killed yesterday by a body of Guate-malan soldiers, together with a number of companions, near the city of Zacapa, Guatemala, near the Honduras coast. The cablegram states that Gen.

Enriquez had been unanimously pro-claimed dictator of the Constitutional party of Guatemala and has in consequence incurred the active hostility of President Barillas, who alarmed the public by announcing that Gen. Enriquez was at the head of an isurrection directed against the present government.
President Barillas ordered Gen. Euriquez to present himself to the authorities of Zacapa.

Gen. Enriquez proceeded at once toward that city, accompanied by his two brothers and a party of friends. A company of 100 soldiers, lying in am-bush on one of the roads out of the city, fired upon Gen. Enriquez and others of ments Begun.

San Francisco, Feb. 23.—[By the Associated Press.] The taking of testi-mony in rebuttal in the Curtis case closed today. Only two witnesses were examined, both being for the defense. District Attorney Barnes then opened District Attorney Barnes then opened the argument to the jury and said he would only attempt to state the evidence fairly, without any appeal to the prejudices of the jury, leaving them responsible for their verdict. In pursuance of this declaration he reviewed the testimony, laying stress on the fact that Mrs. Holden and Mrs. Johnson, both reading across the street from both residing across the street from where Officer Grant was shot, heard shots, saw flashes, saw one man fall and only one other man run away. A pistol of the same caliber as the one owned by Curtis was found near by with three empty chambers. When ar-rested Curtis exclaimed, "Oh, my God! If I could only recall the past three or four hours!" When arrested Curtis four hours!"
had on his on his wrist the nipper placed e by Officer Grant. The district rney then rehearsed the story told attorney then rehearsed the story told by Curtis to the effect that he was as-saulted and the officer was killed by a footpad, and in closing asked if it were possible for intelligent men to believe the story as told.

After Disirict Attorney Barnes had concluded his argument Attorney Knight made the opening argument for the defense. He stated that Curtis is known by reputation to the people of the United States everywhere and that his reputation has always been good, He claimed that it was impossi-ble for a mind befuddled, as was Curtis's on the night of the tragedy, to concoct examination, unless there was truth in this statements, and he was convinced that Curtis had never been prompted as to what defense he should make. Knight said that only one witness, Sert Coles, testified that Policeman Grant Coles, testined that Policeman Grant had a star on when the body was found, and it was further claimed that Grant was in citizen's clothing. Knight claimed that the prosecution had suppressed material evidence, though for what purpose he could not state. He critised the statements of a number of witnesses for the prosecution and said witnesses for the prosecution and said that on the other hand the witnesse Harrington and Mrs. Abbot positively testified to three men being engaged in a struggle at the time the shot was

A Sensational Divorce Suit Coming to Trial in Iowa.

Dusuque (Iowa,) Feb. 28.—[By the Associated Press.] One of the most famous divorce cases in the history of Iowa will come up for hearing at Eldora, the county seat of Hardin county, tomorrow. It is a counterpart of the famous Flack divorce suit in New York. York.

Col. E. S. Elisworth is a prominent politician and millionaire, residing at lowa Falls. Last December, it is politician and millionaire, residing at lowa Falls. Last December, it is stated, he entered a suit for divorce, alleging iuddelity on the part of his wife. Instead of the case being heard in open court in the regular order, it was advanced on the docket and tried in the privacy of a hotel chamber, where no one was present except Judge Heaman, the plaintiff and attorneys, The wife was then, it is said, visiting in Colorado. Not only was she divorced Colorado. Not only was she divorced in this star chamber, but she was also deprived of the custody of her children and any share whatever in her husband's vast property. There is said to be nothing whatever on the court records to show the character of the testi-

ords to show the character of the testimony upon which the divorce was granted.

Mrs. Ellsworth now sues to have the case reopened. In her petition she makes some startling disclosures, and alleges that she knew nothing whatever of her husband's suit until served with notice of the divorce, and that her with notice of the divorce, and that her husband has attempted to force her to a confession of criminality.

DISGUSTED SPORTS.

Young Men Who Have Been Cured of Cock-fighting.

There are several disgusted sports in town who won't take in any more cockfights at Mondonville. A coterie of young bloods, who frequent a prominent cigar store on South Spring street, made a winning a week ago shooting "craps" and shaking dice for a nickel a throw. With their surplus winnings they hired an elegant turn-out and took in Westlake Park, and from there proceeded to Mondonville, a tough resort on the outlake Park, and from there proceeded to Mondonville, a tough resort on the outskirts of the city on the Santa Monica road. Arriving there they saw a large crowd headed for a barn, and joined the gang. A cock-fight was in progress, and the sports took in the fight. Among the spectators present was a "swell-faced soak" who used to tend bar in a San Fernando street "dive," at least that is what he is called by the aforesaid disgusted sports. This young man took notes of all who were present and swore out warrants against the spectators, and has arrested them during this week. They were taken before Judge Ross, on Pico Heights, who gathered them into his bedroom, ing this week. They were taken before Judge Ross, on Pico Heights, who gathered them into his bedroom, which was improvised as a courtroom. The justice's wife acted as clerk of the court, the deputy constable was not sworn in, but simply told his story; none of the witnesses were sworn, either, but the justice promptly fined the defendants $7.50 apiece, explainthat he fined them all alike whether they occupied front seats at the fight or not. Even, he said, if a man happened to drop out of a balloon and saw the fight on his way down he would fine him as a witness to the fight.

The point was raised by the defendants that the constable ought to have stopped the fight instead of permitting it to go on without a protest. He made a neat little haul in fees and will, so the sports say, be able to eat regularly a neat little haul in rees and will, so the sports say, be able to eat regularly for some time to come. The judge is happy, also, but the sports are not. In the language of the day with them, Mondonville is "in the soup."

Heretofore the Millinery Department

Has been owned and controlled by other parties. We now have control of this department and no one realizes the fact more than we do that in order to gain popularity for this department a radical change had to be made. Our aim first was to secure the best artist as head trimmer and this we have done. A thorough refitting of this department was the next thing in order. This also has been accomplished. Then the question of profits stared us in the face and in this the most radical change of all was made. There is no reason why millinery should be sold any higher than any other class of goods, and this is the theory upon which we propose to work this spring. We are gathering a stock of millinery that no house in this city has ever shown before. We are after the three classes of trade, the cheap, the medium and the fine. It is our intention to sell goods as cheap as you can buy in the cheapest places. We will sell you a medium class of goods, and if you want the highest art in millinery at a reasonable price, we have parties that can meet the bill. The Cloak department offers the choice of 4000 garments; Capes, Jackets, Reefers, English box coats, and a large line of Children's coats. An entire sample line of one of the largest manufacturers in this country. The Cloak department is doing a tremendous business this season. It took the lead last fall and we are showing today for spring trade the most elegant line of garments that you ever saw. It is way ahead of our winter display. Come in and see what is new, whether you wish to purchase or not. It is a great sight.

OFFICE OF THE TIMES. LOS ANGELES, Feb. 23, 1892. The condition of the hay market is somewhat unsettled. The winter rains held off so long that a large portion of last year's crop was used up before green feed came. Now that the latter is plentiful the price of hay shows no decline except for barley. Some dealers think that the smallness of the stocks remaining will insure a firm market at present quotations or even higher fig-ures. Arrivals in this city have been light of late except for a low grade of barley hay, which is plentiful and sells at $3 to $3 below the price of regular No. 2. The seems to be considerable difference of opin. ion as to the amount of first-class hay remainining in the farmers' hands, but many dealers are inclined to think that the market will be lightly supplied. The following is a statement of the visible supply of grain on Saturday, February 20, as compiled by the New York Produce Exchange:

Wheat 41,473,000 2000 322,000 Corn. 10,033,000 102,000 133,000 Barley 1,023,000 57,000 133,000 133,000 The Choice onions are scarce and high. The market is well supplied with inferior

How Some of the People Spent Washington's Birthday.

Musicale on the Highlands - Hotel San graphs of Interest - Local [Branch office, No. 50 East Colorado street, where news, advertisements and orders for THE TIMES are received.]

The programme of music and calisthen ics was rendered at the Tabernacle Monday night to the satisfaction of a large audi ence. Every number was liberally ap-plauded and several encores had to be re-sponded to. Miss Peck, Miss Stoutenburgh, Mr. Smith and Dr. Parker sang a quartette, and Mr. Smith and Miss Peck sang a duet very sweetly. Dr. Parker rendered a bass solo in his accustomed good style, and an excellently-rendered instrumental solo was given by Miss Coleman, who is rapidly coming to the front as a musician of excep-tional ability. Mrs. Plant and Miss Bosley gave recitations in a very, creditable manner, and the entertainment closed with a quartette by the Henderson sisters, whose ork was up to the usual high standard.

A novel feature of the performance was

A novel feature of the performance was the calisthenic exercises given by a class of twelve young lady pupils of the State Normal school. The wand exercise was exceedingly pretty, and the effect of the Indian club exercises, which took place while the room was darkened, the curves described by the clubs being outlined by flaming torches, was decidedly striking.

The proceeds of the entertainment will net a handsome sum to the Young Ladies' Foreign Missionary Society, under whose auspices it was given.

THE OLORS WERE RED, WHITE AND BLUE.

One of the prettiest cotilions ever given at the Raymond took place on the evening of the 22d, special honor being conferred on the birthday of the illustrious George in decorations and favors.

The ballroom was festooned in the national tricolors, the platform banked with palms, ferns, and a portrait of the "Father of His Country," wreathed in smilax, given a prominent position.

A programme dance occupied the earlier hours of the evening, the cotilion, which was gracefully and expeditiously led by Mr. Scoville and Miss Wilde, not commencing until after refreshments.

The ladies favored the gentlemen with fac-simile hatchets, and the compliment was returned with cherry tree branches—on satin. Flags blended with red, white and blue ribbons in the merry dance, and souvenir spoons from historic Mt. Vernon were among the most appreciated of the favors. Altogether the affair proved a decided success, and its novelty reflected great credit on the originators.

cided success, and its novelty reflected great credit on the originators.

How THEN CELEBRATED.

Washington's birthday was celebrated by the Marshalltown and Le Grand people giving a pienic in honor of Dr. Ward, wife and daughters and Mrs. George Will of Marshalltown and J. B. Welker and wife of Le Grand, Iowa, who are sojourning in Pasadena for the winter. It was immensely enjoyed by all. Eighty-three persons sat down to dinner, when the provisions and coffee was disposed of as if by magic.

Among those present were: L. P. Royce, Mrs. Royce and husband, Mrs. Meilsh, Mrs. Sutcliffe, B. Jarvis and wife, William Turner, wife and three children, Minnie Pinez, Mrs. Kerfoot, Miss Bacon, F. Woodbury and wife, Mrs. Dr. Elson and son, Mr. Abbott, wife and three children, A. E. Abbott, wife and mother, Mrs. Harry Irwine, Mrs. Mary Allman, J. Pearson and wife, Mrs. C. V. Benedict, Miss B. B. Hinman, Miss Chamberlain, Miss Grace Weingarth, Dr. J. Resley and wife, C. C. Thompson and wife, J. Garber, Mrs. M. H. Pearce, Anthony Pearce, J. R. Bailey, Charles Miller, A. J. Hubbard and wife, D. D. Downs, Mrs. Frank Rogers, Cressie Rogers, Mrs. A. Hurlburt, Mrs. Hocksey, James Reed, Mr. and Mrs. England, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Nash, Cyrus Wright, Mrs. John Frayer, Miss Minnie Frayer, W. B. Watts of Azusa and many others. others.

Those present were treated to the novel sight of a wildcat chase, the animal being run down and killed by Mr. Bandini and Riverside exerted herself to get up a creattable exhibit at the Colton fair and has succeeded admirably. The best loca-tion in the large pavilion was secured for this city, and the eye is attracted by it as soon as one enters the building. The gen-eral display, not entered for premiums, is placed upon a table forty-five feet long by eight feet wide. On this the word "River-ide" appears in mammoth letters of Washington Navel oranges, outlined by a narrow strip of evergreen and laid on a narrow strip of evergreen and laid on a backgroud of cured lemons. Around the table is a border of small pyramids of Navel oranges, guarded by large pyramids at the corners, At the north end of the table, in a bed of Washington Navels, is "1892" laid with lemons. At the right as the room is entered is a table 24x6 feet covered with cured lemons, mostly Lisbons, but containing some Eureka and Sweet Rinds. This is the exhibit of G. W. Garcelon, and contains eighteen boxes of fine fruit, exhibited for display of cured lemons. At the left is the exhibit of J. W. Roberts. Upon an inclined plain Mr. Roberts name appears, made of Washington Navel oranges laid in a bed of cured lemons. Beside the general display Mr. Roberts has the following entries: One hundred St. Michaels, 100 Washington Navels, 100 seedlings, 100 large Red St. Michaels, 100 improved Australian Navels, 100 Mediterranean Sweets, display of cured lemons and display of green lemons.

nother Candidate in the Field for Mayor -The Councilmanie Fight-The Coast Line Route-Notes and Personals,

[Branch office, No. 713 State street, where news, advertisements and orders for THE TIMES are received.]

The nearer the day of the city election approaches the more intricate becomes the political situation. Yesterday a petition was started by the friends of C. A. Thompson asking Mr. Thompson to run for the office of mayor. This move has set the wire-pullers to thinking, and they ask, what does this mean? What effect will this have in the fight? Will it actually be a three-cornered fight, or will one resign and who will resign? Will Mr. Thompson accept? Who will it affect, Mr. Hunt or E. W. Gaty?

ally is quiet, is this year booming. Each ward has its two and three aspirants, and the election of councilmen will this year be a matter in which the citizens will take a

PLEASED WITH THE ROUTE.

The people generally of this city are pleased with the route that the Southern Pacific has decided upon between Ellwood, in this county, and San Margarita, in San Luis Obispo. The people of the progressive town of Lompoc are sery happy over the route, as the road will pass within seven miles of the town. The country immediately around Lompoc is most productive, the nature of the soil adapting the lands for beans, potatoes, corn and barley. The country south of the town is peculiarly adapted for apple trees, pears, apricots, wainuts, etc. The large ranches around the vicinity of Lompoc will be cut up into small farms and rented to tillers of the soil.

Judge E. H. Heacock, who was appointed by the common council to act as referee in the matter before the city fathers concern-ing the establishment of water rates charged by the Santa Barbara Water Com-pany, has refused to act as such referee. There are more Eastern tourists in the city this year than there has been for many years at this time of the year. Santa Barbara has been favored by many prominent officials this year. Twelve private cars have come to the city, with their parties, this month.

The handsome team of Sloan De Nice was sold yesterday to Mrs. R. L. Chamberlain of this city. The team, Sam and Rodney, is the handsomest team ever owned in the county. They can trot over a rough road in 2:40. They will weigh 2600 pounds; price $2500.

The water from the hot springs of Santa Barbara is bottled and sold and its merits are recognized by all consumers. New de-velopments of the wealth of this county are submerged by actual facts. In the case of J. B. Joyaux vs. Cæsario Lataillade, the court yesterday ordered judgment for the defendant. When the case was called plaintiff was not ready and asked for a continuance, which the Court denied. Plaintiff then declined to introduce testimony and the Court rendered its judgment as above stated.

The Santa Fé office has a very unique map of Jackson Park, showing the World's map of Jackson Park, showing the World's Exposition and at a glance is seen the important location that Calfornia has been assigned. It has twice the space of that of any other State, and fronting the Illinois Central Railroad. Santa Barbara county will make a most unique display in its special departments, and when the actual products and advantages of this county are represented to people from all nations then will Southern California be appreciated.

Orchardists Pursuing a Very Foolish Policy.

Shipping the Natural Fertilizers Away to Other Localities.

teresting Session of the Monday Club Meeting of the Ministerial Association - Orange Items - Notes and Personals.

[Branch office at Briggs' news stand, corner Fourth and West streets, where subscriptions and advertisements are taken.]

There are residents of Orange county pursuing a policy that they will some day lament truly and sadly. A practical orch-ardist said to THE TIMES reporter a few days ago that while the citrus orchards here did not show the necessity of fertiliz-ing now as in some other localities yet the time was coming, and it was not far distime was coming, and it was not far distant, when the orchardists would need all the natural fertilizers the county affords to recuperate and strengthen the thousands of young trees that have been planted the past two years. The many old sheep corrals in various portions of the county afford a rich fertilizer that is especially adapted to the soil upon which are located the citrus orchards, but instead of using it at home or keeping it for future use it is being sold and hauled away by the trainload to Riverside and other points, where the far-seing citrus orchardists realize its intrinsic value. If the excellence of Orange county fruit and the heavy yield of its trees are kept up the home fertilizers must be retained and applied in due course of time. The policy of shipping it to other localities is suicidal in action, if not in intent.

AN ANCIENT FRAUD.

Oceanside Victimized by an Old Reprobate.

The Way He Worked the Proprietor of the St. Cloud Hotel.

Money No Object When it Came to Making a Big Talk.

to Say Nothing of Other Indebtedness, Left Behind as

From all accounts old man Starr, with half a dozen names, who victimized so many people in Los Angeles and Pasa-dena a little over a year ago and wound up his sporting life so far as the world in this end of the State knows by marrying a San Bernardino lady with some money, which he secured before the wedding baked meats were cold and departed, leaving the bride to honeymoon all by her lonely, has turned up in the person of James Johnson, who has been operating at Oceanside.

Johnson is about 65 years of age and answers the description of Starr in every particular. He has the same white hair, the same eyes and mouth and his mode of procedure is exactly the same.

Johnson put in an appearance at Oceanside about six weeks ago and at once put up at the St. Cloud Hotel, and as he put on the style of a rich man he was treated royally by Mr. Myers, the proprietor. Johnson spent the most of his time going about the city examining property and asking any number of questions. He never missed a chance to inform his hearers that he had a large bank account, etc., and quite a number believed him, notwithstanding the fact that he borrowed money from every individual who came in his way.

Some ten days ago he spent the day in San Diego, and on his return to the St. Cloud in the evening he walked into the office and asked the proprietor what kind of a safe he had. The old rascal looked it over carefully and coolly remarked.

'I am arraid of that safe, Mr. Myers, for it is old and shaky, so I guess I will keep the $8000 I brought over from San Diego on my person, as I think it will be safer. I should not have brought it over with me, but I must make a payment on a ranch I bought in the morning, and I promised to have the money here. I would like to put it in your safe, but I am afraid it would not be safe."

The old rascal kept up a string of talk after this fashion for some time, when he suddenly asked Mr. Myers what he would take for the hotel and furniture. The hotel man was not anxious to sell, but he finally fixed the price at $12,000, and to his astonishment Johnson jumped at the proposition.

"You see," said the ancient confi-dence man, "I have an old uncle and aunt back East, and this business would aunt back East, and this business would just suit them. If they remain in that climate much longer they will not be able to do anything to help themselves, but out here where people never get sick they would be able to earn their own living and enjoy themselves, and that is why I want your hotel. I have already written them that I would serve a hetel for them in Southern Calcure a hotel for them in Southern Cali-fornia, and I have not been able to find anything that suits me as well as this." After a little further talk Johnson

D. T. Curtis, accompanied by Mrs. Curtis, left on Wednesday evening for Los Angeles, where he will spend the next six weeks. Mr. Curtis is one of the large land owners in this and Fresno counties. All of his lands are of the best and noted here for their fertility. His Mountain View and Stokes Valley ranches are splendid properties. He has farmed for thirty years in this State and understands our agricultural conditions second, perhaps, to no man. His good judgment has been shown in parcelling his land in small bodies to the homeseeker, and the result is that it the past two years he has sold land cumpensation, seedings, the endicated by these colonists. The endystice paid, is that the utmost sufficients manifested by these colonists with their purchases and prospects. THE CITRUS FAIR.

feeting of the Executive Committee—The Allotment of Space. The meeting of the Executive Com-

Citrus Fair Association mittee of the was held yesterday at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. There were present Messrs. E. W. Holmes, E. F. C. Klokke, George W. Ford, John Scott and F. J. Smith.

The principal business transacted was the allotment of space to localities not already assigned room and the changaiready assigned room and the chang-ing of others. Ontario sent word that they will not build the big lemon and the locality space was moved nearer the stage, Riverside being given the space originally assigned Ontario. The River-side people have agreed to incorporate the design refused by Ontario in their display.

The committee decided to leave the selection of judges on the most artistic display until after the fair opens, when the judging committee will be ap-pointed from the other classes. Superintendent Wiggins will have a force of men at work at the pavilion today. Several days will be required to complete the canopy and place it in position. Work will be begun on the exhibits by Saturday morning. The committee instructed the secretary and superintendent to use their own discretion in the matter of ar-ranging special days to the various lo-calities represented at the fair.

A telegram was received yesterday from Frank A. Miller of Riverside stating that the Riverside committee would like to bring the Knights of Pythias band of Riverside, which consists of forty pieces. It is their inten-tion to make a street parade and give a concert at the pavilion.

HE MADE NO DEFENSE Porter, the Tough Who Insulted Women,

A. E. Porter, the tough, who was arrested by Officer Walker Saturday night for insulting ladies on Spring street, was up for trial before Justice Austin yesterday afternoon. There were several ladies present to testify against him, but the fellow evidently did not care to go into the case to any extent, for he pleaded guilty at once, and did not even attempt to make any defense.

Officers Walker and Rich were examined, and told how Porter walked along the street and placed his arms around women every chance he got. He was pretty drunk, but knew what he was doing, and when Walker arrested him he turned on the officer and fought all the way to the city prison, and even after he got inside.

Sentence will be pronounced on him this morning at 10 o'clock, and the chances are that he will get a long term in the object. in the chain gang.

The old idea was that facial eruptions were due to a "blood humor," for which they gave potash. Thus the old Sarsaparillas con-tain potash, a drastic mineral, that instead of decreasing, actually creates more crup-tions. You have noticed this when taking other Sarsaparillas. It is however now known that the stomach, the blood creating power, is the seat of all vitiating or cleansing operis the seat of all vitiating or cleansing operations. A stomach clogged by indigestion or constipation, vitiates the blood, result pimples. A clean stomach and healthful digestion purifies it and they disappear. Thus Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is compounded after the modern idea to regulate the bowels and stimulate the digestion. The effect is immediate. A short testimonial to contrast the action of the potash Sarsaparillas and Joy's. Mrs. C. D. Stuart, of 400 Hayes St., S. F., writes: "I have for years had indigestion. I tried a popular Sarsaparilla but it actually caused more pimples to break out on my face. Hearing that Joy's was a later preparation and acted differently, I tried it and the pimples immediately disappeared."

After sufering for years with stomach trouble I was at last induced to try Dr. Wong Him, of No. 59 Upper Main street. Los Angeles. He examined me and pronounced my trouble tumof it the stomach. After two months' treatment, daring which time I felt greatly relieved and benefited, he pronounced me entirely cured, and from that time to the present, which is four months. I have not felt the least return of my old trouble. I am able to eat many things which formerly would distress me very much. Therefore I feel that I can do nothing else than to recommend the doctor to all who can be induced to try him. I hereby extend him my most heartfelt thanks for his services to me.
